POLITICAL SIGNS

Section 30-9 (1), Unified Development Code

Section 30-9 (1) – Political signs

Political signs may be erected on private property as follows:

- (1) One political sign per candidate or ballot issue is permitted per street frontage on a lot with permission of the property owner.
- (2) The maximum size of any political sign shall be 32 square feet in a commercial or industrial zoning district.
- (3) The maximum size of any political sign shall be six (6) square feet in a residential zoning district.
- (4) No political sign shall be installed within the right-of-way.

Previous provisions regarding the duration of time a political sign may be placed were removed by Ordinance No. 2021-4604, effective 01/12/2021.

Political signs are exempt for permitting, however, are limited to the size and placement requirements as outlined above.
