City Clerk of the City of Belton, Missouri

City of Belton
Board of Aldermen
Revised Policy Guidelines Regarding Violations of City Ordinances
Regulating the Sale of Liquor

A. Administration

1. Policy will be administered by the City Clerk.
2. A copy of the adopted and or revised guidelines shall be provided to each holder of a license to sell alcoholic beverages. A copy shall be presented to the licensee when initial license is granted and upon each renewal of the license.
3. A copy of the adopted and or revised guidelines shall be provided to the following: Chief of Police, City Attorney, City Prosecutor, and Municipal Judge.
4. These guidelines and decisions made within these guidelines may be appealed to Board of Aldermen.

B. Treatment of Violators

1. First violation within one year – suspend sales for one day.
2. Second violation within one year – suspend sales for three (3) consecutive days.
3. Third violation within one year – suspend sales for fourteen (14) consecutive days.
4. Fourth violation within 24 months of first violation – forfeit license for one year and not eligible to reapply for a liquor license for 365 days from date of revocation.
5. Subsequent violations after a one-year revocation - 36-month probationary period after restoration of license. If the licensee goes 36 months without a violation, he starts over at step one of the Treatment of Violators. If licensee is caught selling to minors in the 36-month probationary period, it will result in another one-year revocation.

C. Definitions

1. Sales shall refer to alcoholic beverages as defined by law.
 2. Days shall be determined by the City Clerk and shall be consistent for all violators.
